

When over half of the more than 13,000 applications for LPFM licenses have been already made by only 15 entities (companies) it is very clear that actual LOCAL PROGRAM people will be overrun if they are not given preference in the process. What we do NOT want or need is more media consolidation and concentration into fewer greedy hands.